

Attachment H: When a Person Is Accused of a Felony _____

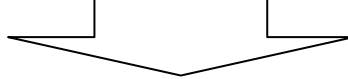

A person accused of a crime may be arrested if the police have probable cause.

The case proceeds to an arraignment where probable cause is reviewed, the defendant may be appointed an attorney, and a plea is entered.

The accused may be committed to jail or released on bail.

A court date is set and a trial is conducted.

